The Belt & Road Eurasia Legal Exchange Program

In order to strengthen mutual understanding and friendship as well as deepen practical cooperation among the legal professionals in Eurasia, China Law Society is going to hold the Course of the Belt & Road Eurasia Legal Exchange Program from September 14 to 25, 2020.

China Law Society is the largest nationwide legal academic organization in China. It assembles elites in legal field from all over the country, and has close working relationships with judicial organs, prosecutorial organs, law firms, law schools and legal departments of enterprises. China Law Society is also the main channel of international legal exchange. It has established strong connection with approximately 800 legal organizations in about 100 countries and regions, and has now signed cooperation memorandums with 132 important legal institutions and organizations in 95 countries and regions.

The Course aims to promote legal information exchanges and personnel exchanges, strengthen the close ties between China and Eurasian countries in the economic, social, and legal fields, promote practical cooperation in regional law, and further optimize the legal environment for trade and economy.

Considering the inconvenience of international travel during the pandemic, the Course will be held online. This Course will include opening ceremony, daily lectures (1 hour per day), and a half-day panel discussion. The language used during the Course will be Russian and English. We will invite famous experts in China to provide lectures on the following topics:

- Civil Code of China
- Opportunities and challenges under the Belt and Road Initiative
- Foreign Investment Law and Its Practice in China
- International Commercial Arbitration Court of China
- The International Arbitration System and Practice of China

- Commercial Law System in China
 - Theory and Practice of China's Crime Governance Model
 - Chinese Administrative Law
 - Socialist Legal System with Chinese characteristics

Please be kindly advised that it is free to attend the program, and we will take in 50 participants this year. If you are interested in participating in this program, or taking some of the lectures, please send us your personal information, including your name, age, gender, position, nationality, and contact information. Certificates will be issued to participants who complete the program and submit a thesis.
